LONG-TERM CARE PARTNERSHIP OVERVIEW

BACKGROUND

In 2006, President Bush signed the Deficit Reduction Act of 2005, which enables states to create LTCi partnership programs. These alliances between the states and private insurance companies encourage people who otherwise might rely on Medicaid for their LTC needs to purchase partnership-qualified policies. The goal is to help stabilize Medicaid by delaying people's use of the program.

Insurance companies voluntarily agree to participate in a state's partnership program by offering LTCi policies that meet specific requirements:

- The policy must be tax-qualified
- The policy must offer inflation protection based on specific age brackets at the time of purchase

The Long-Term Care Insurance Partnership Program began in the 1980s to encourage the purchase of private long-term care insurance. Sponsored by the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation, it provides an alternative to spending down or transferring assets by forming a partnership between Medicaid and private long-term care insurance.

Partnerships were developed basically to encourage people who might otherwise turn to Medicaid to finance their long-term care by purchasing insurance.

One of the main benefits of Long-Term Care Partnership plans is that they allow individuals who deplete their long-term care insurance benefits to retain a specified amount of assets and still qualify for Medicaid, provided they meet all other Medicaid eligibility requirements.

DEFICIT REDUCTION ACT

With the passage of the Deficit Reduction Act (DRA) in 2005:

- Congress allowed all states (based upon state approval) to adopt partnerships and
- Discontinued estate recovery of Partnership-protected assets.

HOW PARTNERSHIP PLANS WORK

Partnership plans work between state government and private insurance companies for the purpose of assisting individuals in planning for their long-term care needs.

Mutual of Omaha

Insurance companies voluntarily agree to participate in the Partnership Program by offering long-term care insurance policies that meet certain state and federal requirements.

Participating states work with insurers to create insurance policies that are more affordable and provide better protection against impoverishment than those commonly offered. Once private insurance benefits are exhausted, special Medicaid eligibility rules are applied if additional coverage is necessary.

Consumers select coverage equivalent to the amount of assets they want to protect. Once the private policy is exhausted, individuals can continue their long-term care coverage under Medicaid if they meet Medicaid eligibility requirements (their assets, up to an amount equal to the policy benefits paid, will not be looked at by Medicaid).

Key Points to Keep in Mind:

- Partnership-qualified policies affect a person's assets only, not income.
- Partnership-qualified policies protect the amount of a person's assets equal only to the long-term care benefits that have been received. That is, if all of the insurance benefits have been exhausted, and the individual applies for Medicaid, he or she will still need to spend down any assets above this amount.

Dollar for Dollar Model

A "Qualified State Partnership" is an approved state plan amendment that offers dollar-for-dollar asset protection. Under the dollar-for-dollar model, for every dollar the long-term care Partnership policy pays in benefits, a dollar of assets is protected from the spend-down requirements for Medicaid eligibility.

Example: Someone who purchases a long-term care Partnership policy with a maximum benefit coverage equaling $50,000 would have protection for $50,000 worth of assets if ever in need of Medicaid coverage.

The examples on the following chart show the benefits a partnership policy can provide. In the first example, the policy insures for $100,000.

In the second example – If the policyholder assets upon application for Medicaid are $100,000, the required asset spend-down before the policyholder is eligible for Medicaid would be $0.

Mutual of Omaha

Amount Policy Insures for	Policyholder Assets Upon Application for Medicaid	Required Asset Spend-Down Before Policyholder is Eligible for Medicaid
$100,000	$100,000	$0
$ 50,000	$100,000	$50,000
No Partnership Policy	$100,000	$100,000

Partnership-Qualified Policy Example

The following is an example of a Partnership-qualified LTC policy and how it works with Medicaid Asset Protection.

Age of Policyholder	With a Partnership-Qualified LTC Insurance Policy
Mary, Single Mother Age 56	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Employed with current retirement assets of $500,000 ➤ Seeking to preserve a portion of her estate for her son ➤ Mary purchases a Partnership-qualified LTC insurance policy
At Age 79	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Current retirement assets now at $600,000 ➤ Mary needs long-term care; satisfies the benefit eligibility requirements and goes on claim ➤ She pays for her care with her LTC insurance policy
At Age 84	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Retirement assets at $600,000 ➤ Home equity value less than $500,000 ➤ Policy is exhausted after paying out $450,000 in benefits – This amount, plus her state’s resource allowance, represents the increased amount of assets she will be able to protect when she seeks to qualify for Medicaid ➤ Mary still requires LTC services and applies for Medicaid Asset Protection ➤ She is required to pay her costs for LTC from her personal assets and income
At Age 85	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Mary is only required to spend down her assets to $460,000 ($450,000 plus a $10,000 resource allowance) ➤ She now qualifies for Medicaid, which starts covering her LTC costs ➤ Mary’s $460,000 in assets are protected, but she is still required to contribute her personal income toward her total LTC costs
At Age 87	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Mary passes away ➤ Retirement assets of $460,000 are preserved for her son

APPLYING FOR MEDICAID

Policyowners do not need to exhaust their policy before applying for Medicaid. They can apply for Medicaid at any time.

Key Points:

- Medicaid coverage is not automatic (i.e., a person's income may exceed the Medicaid eligibility limits). Even if the individual does qualify, the majority of the person's income may need to be spent on long-term care.
- Medicaid asset and income eligibility limits may be more restrictive in the future, which would make it more difficult for individuals to qualify.
- If the Insured moves to another state, Medicaid asset protection may not be available there. The new state may not have a partnership program, or it might not have reciprocity with the old state. In addition, the benefits and eligibility of the new state's Medicaid program may be different from the old state's program.

As with all long-term care policies, consumer protections must be in place for partnership policies. The law also requires states to use the "dollar for dollar" model of asset protection.

DRA REQUIREMENTS

The Deficit Reduction Act of 2005 (DRA) states that a "Qualified Partnership Policy" must meet these conditions:

- The Insured person must be a resident of the Partnership state when the coverage first became effective
- The policy must meet the IRS definition of a "qualified long-term care insurance policy."
- The policy must meet specific rules of the National Association of Insurance Commissioners (NAIC) Model Regulations and Model Act.
- The policy issue effective date cannot be earlier than the effective date of the State Plan Amendment (SPA).

Mutual of Omaha

Inflation Protection Requirement

The DRA requires that long-term care partnership policies include inflation protection if sold to an individual under age 76. The requirement varies depending on the age of the Insured at the time of purchase.

The compound annual inflation protection is required for purchasers below age 61. However, states can determine the percentage rates (3%, 5%*, etc.) that qualify.

Here is a summary of the inflation protection requirement:

- Ages 61 to 76 years old: Some level of inflation protection is required
- Over 76 years old: Inflation protection is optional

*There is a requirement to offer 5% lifetime compound inflation protection which applies to all ages.

Key Point: If an individual purchases a Partnership policy and later decides to remove the Inflation Protection feature, the policy will no longer qualify as a Partnership policy.

NOTE: Partnership policies in the original four “grandfathered” states (CA, CT, IN and NY) must include 5 percent compound annual inflation protection. Under the DRA, new states offering Partnership policies have less stringent rules to follow.

PARTNERSHIP TRAINING REQUIREMENTS

Insurance companies are responsible for ensuring that their producers have the proper long-term care partnership training. They must:

- Maintain records verifying that producers who sell, solicit or negotiate long-term care insurance products have received the required training
- Make these records available to the state insurance department

SUITABILITY

All states require insurance companies and agents to make a reasonable effort to determine the suitability of a recommended sale or replacement.

For the most part, the same suitability requirements that apply to long-term care insurance policies also apply to partnership long-term care policies, with some additional considerations.

There are potential limitations regarding the suitability of partnership policies as they relate to Medicaid requirements. These situations depend on the client’s particular financial situation.

Mutual of Omaha

For example, it may not be advantageous for individuals with a very modest financial situation to purchase a partnership policy, particularly if their assets are not large enough for them to benefit significantly from Medicaid asset protection.

PRODUCER REQUIREMENTS FOR LICENSING, TRAINING & ISSUING THE APPLICATION

Licensing Requirements:

The agent must be licensed in the state where the client is physically located at the time of sale.

CA & KS Exceptions: If the applicant is a resident of CA, the agent must be licensed in CA, regardless of where the sale is made. If the applicant is a resident of KS, the agent must be licensed in KS regardless of where the sale is made. For example, if the application is signed in NE for a client who is a resident of KS, the agent must be licensed in both NE and KS.

Training Requirements:*

Long-Term Care Partnership training must be completed for the state in which the application is signed. Reciprocity rules will apply. NOTE: For CA and KS, training must be completed in both the resident state and state where the application is signed.

Issuing the Application – Application and Product Requirements:

The product and application must be for the state in which the client resides.

*Please refer to the Long-Term Care Partnership Training Requirements for state-specific training requirements.

POLICY EXCHANGES

After a state implements a partnership program, carriers may make an exchange offer to existing Insureds subject to and/or as required by state regulations or according to Company policy.

A long-term care policy is considered eligible for a full exchange or coverage increase when the current policy, issued after the State Plan Amendment effective date, does not meet national partnership qualified coverage levels. Additional coverage would need to be selected, such as inflation, obtain a new policy or exchange for a new plan or product in order to become partnership qualified.

Minimum requirements for exchanges and replacements include:

- The state must have an approved partnership program.
- The policyowner must be a resident of the state which has a partnership program.

Mutual of Omaha

- The policyowner must have tax qualified coverage.
- The policy effective date must be as described by state regulation or company policy.

Policyholders that qualify for a full exchange or coverage increase will:

- Need to complete a cover sheet and new application, change their benefits and go through additional underwriting on the increased coverage.
- Receive a new coverage effective date to the policy to make it partnership qualified.
- See an increase in their current premium.
- Receive a new Schedule of Benefits page for their policy as well as a Partnership Disclosure Notice, which provides information about their policy's Long-Term Care Partnership status.

Policyholder mailings are handled on a state-by-state basis.
