

I first met Ryan at a NAHU Cap Conference many years back and have enjoyed knowing him and watching him grow into one of NAHU's most successful leaders. I had no idea at that time that Ryan would be so instrumental in the success that NAHU experienced over the years that he served on the NAHU BOT. Ryan continues to be active in our association constantly giving back to the industry while also being a leader outside of NAHU and an admired family man.

Ryan's commitment to NAHU has been extraordinary. He led NAHU toward more structured and accountable business oversight of the association. Most importantly, Ryan had an extraordinary ability to help attract new talent to NAHU, while leveraging the leadership of EC board members with a call to action that set the course for NAHU over many subsequent years.

Ryan has continued to make significant contributions to the benefits profession. He combined his extraordinary vision and diverse talents of many to achieve excellence. Few can match his legacy of contribution to the benefits profession in terms of innovation and sustained executive leadership.

Harold R. Gordon was someone we would all like to emulate. Ryan is both the consummate professional and person; supportive, creative, with personal integrity and uncompromising commitment to excellence in his work, friendships and personal life. He has given of himself throughout his adult life for the betterment of those around NAHU, with a legacy of achievement and lasting friendships. He has remained a driving force in executive leadership, going above and beyond in the standard to which he holds himself accountable in every aspect of life.
