Section 1. The Executive Committee shall consist of the elected officers of the Association:

- A. President
- B. President-Elect
- C. Vice President
- D. Treasurer
- E. Secretary
- F. Immediate Past President
- G. Executive Vice President (a non-voting member)

Section 2. The Executive Committee may act in the place of the Board of Trustees between board meetings on all matters explicitly delegated to it by the Board of Trustees.

Section 3. The President may call for meetings of the Executive Committee as the business of the association may require, or a meeting may be called by the Executive Vice President upon written request of three (3) members of the Executive Committee. Except for urgent situations, any called meetings of the Executive Committee shall require notice of not less than three (3) days.

Section 4. A quorum for conducting business shall be no less than four (4) voting members of the Committee.

Section 5. The Executive Committee may transact business by mail or electronic means by voting upon proposals to them. Any such proposal will be adopted if two thirds (2/3) of the entire Executive Committee returns affirmative votes.

ARTICLE VIII - Board of Trustees

Section 1. The Board of Trustees shall consist of:

- A. Executive Committee
- B. Regional Vice Presidents
- C. Chairpersons of the Membership Council
- D. Chairperson of the Legislative Council
- E. Chairperson of the Professional Development Committee

All members of the Board of Trustees shall be members in good standing of the National Association of Health Underwriters.

Section 2. A. The Board of Trustees shall establish and define policies, set and review budgets and have full administrative authority in all matters of the association.
B. Policies and Procedures of the association are adopted, amended or rescinded by a majority vote of the Board of Trustees. Policy and Procedures shall be distributed to all chapter presidents within ten days of adoption, amendment or rescission.

Furthermore, Policy and Procedures are to be reviewed on an annual basis by the Board of Trustees

Section 3. A. Regular Meetings.

- i. The Board of Trustees shall meet at least three (3) regular times each year.
- ii. A written notice of the time and place of all regular meetings of the Board of Trustees shall be distributed to each member of the Board by the Executive Vice President not less than thirty (30) days prior to the meeting.

B. Special Meetings. The Board of Trustees shall also meet at such times and places may be determined by the President, Executive Committee, or the Board of Trustees or by written request of seven (7) members of the Board of Trustees. Except for urgent situations, notice for any special meeting shall be at least three (3) days prior to the meeting.

C. All meetings of the Board of Trustees will be open to any member in good standing.

Section 4. The Board of Trustees may transact business by mail or electronic means by voting upon proposals presented to them. Any such proposal shall be adopted if at least two-thirds (2/3) of the entire Board returns affirmative votes. The Board members shall be advised of the results of such balloting no less than seven (7) days after the vote is tabulated.

Section 5. A majority of the Board of Trustees shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

Section 6. The Board of Trustees shall also execute other specific duties assigned to it throughout these Bylaws.

Section 7. The interpretation of these Bylaws resides with the Board of Trustees. Disputes between individual members or member associations regarding the Bylaws shall be submitted to the Board of Trustees, in writing, and the Board's interpretation shall be in writing and entered into the permanent minutes of the Board of Trustees.

Section 8. A. Regional Vice Presidents shall be elected by the Delegates from the state and local associations of their respective regions at the annual meeting of the House of Delegates. Each term of office shall be for two (2) years. The odd numbered Regional Vice Presidents shall be elected on the odd numbered year and the even numbered Regional Vice Presidents shall be elected on the even year. No one person shall hold the office of Regional Vice President for more than two (2) complete consecutive terms or more than five (5) years consecutively. Any person who has served two (2) consecutive terms as a Regional Vice President is ineligible for election to a Regional Vice President position for three (3) years.

B. In the event an individual who is serving as Regional Vice President shall cease to serve as Regional Vice President due to death, disability, resignation or removal by due process as outlined in Article XIII herein, the presidents of the state chapters within the region shall nominate, within thirty (30) days of the effective date of the vacancy, one member of the Association to fill the remainder of the Regional Vice President's term. The nominee must submit a signed statement saying he/she is willing and able to serve if elected. The Board of Trustees must approve the nomination by a three-fourths (3/4) vote of the Board of Trustees. In the event that the Board of Trustees fails to approve the Region's nomination for Vice President, the President of the association shall nominate a member in good standing from that region to fulfill the unexpired term of that office subject to a three-fourths (3/4) vote of approval by the Board of Trustees.

ARTICLE IX - Committees

Section 1. Committees of the association shall be of three designations:

- A. Standing - Standing Committees are created by these Bylaws and are a permanent part of the Association structure. Details regarding the organization and duties of Standing Committees, if not otherwise defined in these Bylaws, will be detailed in the Policies and Procedures of the Board of Trustees.
- B. Special - Special Committees are created by the Board of Trustees, pursuant to Policies and Procedures and are intended to exist beyond the term of the appointing Board of Trustees.
- C. Task Forces - Task forces are created by the President, pursuant to Policies and Procedures and are intended to exist only during the tenure of the appointing President.

Section 2. The Standing Committees shall be:

- A. Legislative Council
- B. Membership Council
- C. Nominations Committee
- D. Elections Committee
- E. Harold R. Gordon Award Committee
- F. Finance and Audit Committee
- G. Professional Development Committee
- H. Governance Committee

Section 3. The President shall appoint the Chairpersons and the members of all Standing or Special Committees and Task Forces except the Nominations (as provided in Article X) and Harold R. Gordon Award (as provided in Section 7 of this Article) committees. All Chairpersons' appointments shall be subject to approval by the Board of Trustees.

Section 4. The Board of Trustees shall establish guidelines for all committees regarding usual duties, terms of office, and requirement for reports unless otherwise specified in these Bylaws.

Section 5. The administration of the fiscal affairs of all Standing Committees, Special Committees and Task Forces are vested in the Board of Trustees.

Section 6. The Harold R. Gordon Award standing committee members shall include; the President and Immediate Past President, and the last five available Award recipients. The committee's chair shall be the recipient of the Award from the year prior to the current recipient. The chairperson of the committee must be a member of NAHU. If the committee member scheduled to be chairperson is not a member of NAHU, the previous chairperson shall continue to serve as chairperson. If this situation occurs two consecutive years, the President of NAHU shall appoint a chairperson who was a previous Gordon recipient and current member. In addition the Executive Vice President shall be a non voting member.

ARTICLE X - Nominations and Elections

Section 1. Nominations

- A. The Nominations Committee shall consist of the Chairperson and two (2) additional members. The Chairperson of the Nominations Committee shall be the Immediate Past President or the appointee of the President fulfilling the duties of that office for its unexpired term. The Vice-Chairperson shall be the President-Elect or the appointee of the President fulfilling the duties of that office for its unexpired term. The third member shall be a past NAHU President, who is appointed by the Nominations Committee Chairperson.
- B. The role and responsibility of the Nominations Committee shall be to compile a list of candidates for the various offices to be filled at the Association's annual meeting. As a part of its responsibilities, the committee shall mail its report to the Secretary not less than ninety (90) days prior to the annual meeting of the association. Not less than seventy-five (75) days prior to the annual meeting, the Secretary shall postal mail or electronic mail a copy of the report to the President and Secretary of each State and local association. In addition, the report of the Nominations Committee will be published in the association's magazine prior to the annual meeting.
- C. A member's name may be presented to the Nominations Committee or the NAHU Board of Trustees, for consideration as a nominee by any member of the Nomination Committee, or by written notice from any state and local association accompanied by a statement signed by the nominee that he/she is willing and able to serve if nominated and elected. In the event that no members are nominated for a position, the Board of Trustees may nominate a candidate. Nominations may not be made by individual members, except as allowed in Section D below.
- D. Additional nominations outside of the Nominations Committee may be made by written notice from the Boards of Directors of at least three (3) state and local associations, addressed to the Secretary of the association, which must be received not less than thirty (30) days prior to the annual meeting. The Secretary shall publish such additional nominations and mail them to the local associations not less than twenty-five (25) days prior to the annual meeting.
- E. With the exception of Immediate Past President and President, additional nominations for executive officers or Regional Vice Presidents may be made from the floor of the convention while nominations are open for a particular office. In order to qualify, the nominator must present to the Secretary no less than twenty-four (24) hours before the opening of the floor for nominations a petition containing a minimum number of different state and local associations as described below, along with a signed statement by the nominee that he or she is willing and able to serve if elected.
  - i. For an office which is voted on by all delegates, the minimum number of valid signatures shall be twenty-five (25) percent of the registered delegates in attendance at the annual meeting, and those signatures must be from a minimum - of ten (10) different state and/or local member associations from at least five (5) different states must be represented by those signatures.

- ii. For an office which is voted on by delegates from a certain geographic region, the minimum number of valid signatures shall be twenty-five (25) percent of the registered delegates from that region in attendance at the annual meeting representing a minimum of three (3) different state and/or local member associations from at least two (2) different states within that region.
- F. The Nominations Committee will determine the number and duration of nominating speeches for all candidates and all offices, with a minimum of two (2) minutes allowed per candidates.

Section 2. Elections

- A. The Election Committee shall consist of the chairperson, who shall be the Immediate Past President, and regional members of the committee, who shall be one each from their respective region appointed by the Regional Vice President and approved by the entire Board of Trustees. They shall be members in good standing of NAHU. They shall not be currently running for office. If such should occur, his or her name should be withdrawn and the appropriate Regional Vice President will replace their name with another member in good standing.
- B. The responsibilities of the Election Committee shall include:
  - i. The adoption of procedures for credentialing delegates to vote for offices;
  - ii. Reporting to the House of Delegates on the number of delegates who have been credentialed and the meeting of necessary quorum for the House of Delegates to conduct business; and
  - iii. To supervise all ballot votes and tabulating and reporting the results of all votes.
- C. The nominees for each office receiving a majority of the votes cast shall be declared elected. An additional vote shall be taken if no candidate receives the necessary majority for election. The two (2) candidates receiving the most votes (or more in the case of a tie) on the first ballot shall be the only names on the additional ballot or ballots.

ARTICLE XI - House of Delegates

Section 1. The House of Delegates shall consist of:

- A. The Board of Trustees
- B. Past Presidents of NAHU
- C. Delegates of state and local associations as designated in Sections 2 and 3 of this Article.

Section 2. A. Each state and local association shall be entitled to three (3) voting delegates. One (1) additional voting delegate will be allowed for each additional fifty (50) active members in the member association above one hundred (100) active members. No member state association, however, shall be entitled to more than eight (8) voting delegates. No additional delegates shall be assigned for less than fifty (50) active members above the base amount of one hundred (100) active members. This count must be determined on the last day of the month that falls between sixty (60) and ninety (90) days before the opening session of the Annual Meeting.

- B. No individual member may be counted under more than one census of a member organization.
- C. Delegates must be active members in good standing of the association that are representing as indicated on the official NAHU membership roster.
- D. Notwithstanding C. above, with the approval of the state or local member association involved, past state presidents who are current members in good standing may be assigned to fill any unused state or local delegate position in the state in which they were president.

Section 3. Each state and local association may designate one alternate for each of its delegates. A designated alternate may replace a delegate unable to fulfill his/her voting duty upon certification of his/her qualification to serve according to the requirements above. All alternates must be identified and credentialed by the deadline established by the Nominations Committee.

Section 4. For purposes of transacting business in the House of Delegates a quorum shall be at least a majority of the duly registered delegates representing no less than twenty-five (25) percent of the association's state and local associations.

Section 5. The Annual Meeting of the House of Delegates shall be in the month of June or July unless physically impossible. In the event the Annual Meeting cannot be held in June or July, it shall be held in the month of May.

Section 6. The House of Delegates may:

- A. Elect or remove officers and Trustees of NAHU,
- B. Suggest and recommend policy to the Board of Trustees,
- C. Amend these Bylaws,
- D. Review the actions taken by the officers and Board of Trustees,
- E. Establish dues to be paid to the NAHU.

Section 7. Written notice of resolutions to be considered at any meeting will be sent to each state and local association forty-five (45) days prior to the annual meeting. Members desiring to propose items for consideration by the House of Delegates shall submit their proposals in resolution form to the Secretary no later than sixty (60) days prior to the meeting. No new business items shall be added to the House of Delegates agenda less than forty-five (45) days prior to the meeting, unless two-thirds (2/3) of the those delegates voting approve the consideration of such resolution and sufficient copies of the proposed resolution is provided for each registered delegate at the House of Delegates.

Section 8. No member of the House of Delegates shall cast more than one (1) vote on any issue even if that member is qualified as a voting member under more than one (1) classification set out in Section 1 of this Article.

Section 9. The place for the annual meeting shall be determined by the Board of Trustees and shall be announced one year in advance. The Board of Trustees shall retain the discretionary power to change the location in the event circumstances prevent use of the place designated.

Section 10. Special meetings of the House of Delegates may be called by a majority vote of the entire Board of Trustees or upon written request twenty-five (25) state and local associations representing at least three (3) regions made to the President of NAHU, provided that the written request state the reason for the convocation. The notice of a special meeting shall be sent to each local association stating the reason for the convocation.

ARTICLE XII - Suspension, Revocation, Resignation and Dissolution of State and Local Associations

Section 1. Financial Suspension or Revocation.

- A. Any state or local association more than sixty (60) days in arrears for any indebtedness shall be eligible to have its membership herein suspended or revoked as outlined in this Article.
- B. State and local associations shall use their funds only to accomplish the objectives and purposes specified in all relevant Bylaws, including those of NAHU, and pertinent state and federal tax laws. Breach of this fiduciary duty to the association and its respective membership shall cause the Association to be eligible to have its membership herein suspended or revoked as outlined in this Article.

Section 2. Failure to abide by Relevant Bylaws or Policies of the Association or NAHU.

The strength of our membership is best reflected by a common governing framework, approved use of the association's name and symbols and shared financial ties. Any state or local association which has failed to fulfill their obligations under relevant governing documents, including but not limited to Bylaws, Articles or Policies and Procedures of the state and/or local association or of NAHU shall be eligible to have its membership herein suspended or revoked as outlined in this Article.

Section 3. Inactivity of an Association.

Any state or local association which has 1) failed to report its officers to its state association or NAHU; 2) failed to respond, within thirty (30) days, to correspondence sent by registered mail to the last known President, Treasurer and Secretary of that association or 3) upon motion of the governing body of the relevant state or regional vice president reporting that an Association is inactive or has gone dormant, may be dissolved in accordance with the procedure contained in this Article.

Section 4. Process for Suspension or Revocation/Dissolution.

- A. Notice to the Association whose suspension or revocation/dissolution is being considered by the Board of Trustees shall be provided in writing, sent by registered mail by the Executive Vice President of NAHU to the last reported President, Treasurer and Secretary of the Association.
- B. The notice shall include a brief statement establishing the basis for the proposed suspension or revocation and the date of a meeting of the Board of Trustees at which the Association's affiliation with NAHU will be considered.

- C. Not less than thirty (30) days following the receipt of the notice by either party representing the Association, the Board of Trustees shall hold a meeting to consider the Association's membership with NAHU, shall consider the input of and information provided by relevant Association and may vote on the suspension or revocation/dissolution.
- D. A majority of the members of the Board of Trustees present and voting shall be necessary to suspend an Association from its affiliation with NAHU. If suspension is approved by the Board of Trustees, the following question before the Board shall be the period of suspension for the Association, said period of suspension however should not exceed twelve (12) months.
- E. A three-fourths (3/4) vote of the entire Board of Trustees present and voting shall be necessary to revoke or dissolve a state or local Association's charter.

Notice of suspension or revocation must be sent by the Executive Vice President to the President and Secretary of the suspended or discharged state and local association.

- Section 5.
- A. Any state or local association may resign from NAHU provided that all financial and other obligations of the state and local association to NAHU have been fulfilled, and that, if incorporated, the corporation has been duly dissolved.
  - B. A state or local association may resign by passing a Resolution of Resignation adopted by a three-fourths (3/4) vote of the active membership of the state and local association. The adopted Resolution shall be sent by the Secretary of the member association by registered mail to the Executive Vice President of NAHU and shall become effective upon acceptance by the Board of Trustees. Upon acceptance of the Resolution of Resignation by the NAHU Board of Trustees, individual members shall become active members of the existing member association nearest them in their state or of their state association or members-at-large if no other association exists within their state.
  - C. The state and local association, by taking the action to resign, shall surrender all rights to the use of the name, emblem, insignia, plate, sign, label or phrase indicative of membership in the association.
  - D. State and local associations shall use funds only to accomplish the objectives and purposes specified in these Bylaws and no part of said funds shall inure, or be distributed to the members of the state and local association in the event it is disbanded or the charter revoked for cause in violation of the Bylaws of the National Association of Health Underwriters. Immediately upon disbandment or revocation, the state and local association's governing Board shall return all remaining association funds to its state association. If there is no state association, however, then said funds shall be sent to the National Association of Health Underwriters, for placement in escrow. After a period of one (1) year, if the association has not been reactivated or a new association organized and chartered, escrowed funds and interest shall become a part of the general funds of a member state association which may have been subsequently duly chartered. If there is no state association, the escrowed funds will be allocated to a National account for the development of chapters within the region of the disbanded or revoked association.

ARTICLE XIII - Removal from Office

Section 1. A member of the Board of Trustees may be removed from office in the event of such acts of dishonesty, fraud, misrepresentation, or other reasonable cause as would prevent the effective performance of his/her duties on the Board of Trustees.

Section 2. A. The process for removal of any member of the Board of Trustees, except for Executive Vice President, shall be as follows:

- i. Notice shall be provided to the Board member, whose removal is being sought, outlining the basis for removal and signed by the Executive Vice President. The notice shall also contain a statement reflecting that the condition for removal required under subsection (B) herein has been satisfied and provide notice to the Board member of the date of the special called meeting of the Board of Trustees to which the removal will be considered. That notice shall be sent to the Board member's last know address, by U.S. Postal Service, with proof of mailing.
- ii. The special called meeting of the Board of Trustees shall be held to consider the matter of removal of the Board member, providing members of the Board to consider the basis for the removal and information from the Board member whose removal is being considered; and
- iii. Following the consideration, there shall be a vote of the members of entire Board of Trustees, with the exception of the member whose removal is being sought, and a vote of three-fourths (3/4) majority of those eligible to voter shall be required to remove the member from the Board of Trustees, and the board member shall be removed from office immediately and a successor appointed in accordance with the provisions of Article VIII, Section 8.

B. A Board member's removal must be precipitated by:

- i. For the removal of any member of the Board of Trustees, a signed request for the matter to be considered by a three-fourths (3/4) of the remaining members of the entire Board.
- ii. The removal of any Regional Vice President may also be initiated by a signed request for the matter to be considered by the Board of Trustees by one of the following:
  - a. a majority of the presidents of the state associations located in the region represented by the Regional Vice President on behalf of their respective state associations; or
  - b. twenty-five (25%) percent of the presidents of the state and local association which are located in the region represented by the Regional Vice President on behalf of their respective state and local associations.

C. Notice of recall or removal must be sent by registered mail to the affected individual advising him/her of the action taken or about to be taken. Removal by due process requires notification prior to the vote for removal from office.

Section 3. Recall from office of an officer or Regional Vice President of The Association shall cause the office to be vacant until removal from the office is achieved as described in Section 2 of this Article and a successor is appointed. Recall can be initiated by the Board of Trustees and or twenty-five (25) percent of the member associations. Recall can be achieved only by a three-fourths (3/4) vote of the Board Trustees.

Section 4. Failure to achieve the required vote for removal will cause the immediate reinstatement of the recalled officer or Regional Vice President. Any appointee replacing the recalled officer shall also be immediately discharged.

ARTICLE XIV - Financial

Section 1. The fiscal year of NAHU shall be 1 January through 31 December.

Section 2. The Board of Trustees shall install and maintain an efficient system of accounts and to that end shall engage Certified Public Accountants. There shall be an independent audit of the association's books every year.

Section 3. The Board of Trustees shall adopt a budget for the fiscal year not later than 1 November preceding the start of the fiscal year. A summary of the adopted budget will be distributed in a timely manner to all state and local Presidents and Treasurers

Section 4. The Executive Vice President, or any other person entrusted with the handling of funds or property of the association, shall furnish, at the expense of the association, a fidelity bond approved by the Board of Trustees, in such sum as the Board shall prescribe.

Section 5. Disbursements shall not exceed the greater of revenue raised or the expenses budgeted, except by three-fourths (3/4) vote of the entire Board of Trustees. In the event of board approval, written notification of such action shall immediately be forwarded to all state and local chapter Presidents and Treasurers.

Section 6. The Executive Vice President, with the approval of the Executive Committee, shall designate the depositories of all funds of NAHU and its affiliated arms.
