Paige Phillips Named NAHU Region V Vice President

Local Healthcare Agent & Small Business Owner Accepts Nomination to NAHU Board of Trustees

(BIRMINGHAM, AL) – Paige Phillips was named Region V vice president to the National Association of Health Underwriters (NAHU) Board of Trustees at the 87th Annual Convention and Exhibition in Orlando, FL.

“We are pleased to welcome Paige as a regional vice president of NAHU. She is an incredibly passionate individual who has worked hard to make sure agents and brokers are able to continue assisting their clients in this new health insurance marketplace,” said Janet Trautwein, NAHU CEO.

Phillips began her insurance career in 1982 by working at Protective Life in Birmingham, AL, as an independent life and health agent, which has been the focus of her profession for over 25 years. Currently, she works at Anderson, Williams, McKinnis & Company, Inc., as an employee benefits director, handling employee worksite marketing and employer paid benefits.

For over two decades, Phillips has served in several leadership positions at the local, state and national levels. She serves as president for both Alabama Association of Health Underwriters (AHU) and Birmingham AHU. She worked on both the NAHU Awards and Membership Council committees for several years before becoming chairs for both committees.

Phillips has received great recognition for her leadership efforts and expertise, which includes being a recipient of our Distinguished Service Award, Presidential Citation, and Lifetime Qualifier of NAHU’s Leading Producers Round Table for over 20 years. She was also awarded the Alabama John Galloway Memorial Award, which is given annually to one person who exemplifies both leadership and professionalism in the insurance industry.

“I look forward to working within our association to attract more agents and brokers to belong to our professional association that provides meaningful marketplace solutions that improve the accessibility and affordability of health insurance while improving the lives of American individuals and families,” said Phillips.

In her spare time, Phillips sells self-defense and personal protection items for Damsel in Defense and promotes safety awareness for women. She resides in Calera, AL and has one child, Tonya and enjoys spoiling her two grandchildren, Grady and Kinsey who are the light of her life.

The National Association of Health Underwriters represents more than 100,000 professional health insurance agents and brokers who provide insurance for millions of Americans. NAHU is headquartered in Washington, DC. For more information, visit our web site at www.nahu.org.
