Karl Ahlrichs is Senior Consultant and Business Developer for Gregory and Appel. Karl has broad experience in senior level problem solving, with proven skills in handling complex organizational issues with uncommon sense. Karl is a national speaker and author, and is often quoted in the local and national media.

Karl joined Gregory & Appel after serving as a founding partner of ExactHire, a human resources services firm. Prior experience was as a Senior Consultant for Professional Staff Management, Indiana's largest and oldest PEO. Earlier he was in Business Development in the Indianapolis office of Marsh & McLennan, and Vice President of Right Management Consultants, an international human resources consulting and outplacement firm. At those firms, his clients included Roche Diagnostics, Boeing, Apple Computer, Wellpoint, and Frito Lay.

Karl's experience is perfectly suited to times of great organizational change. He has decades of strategic consulting to all industries, using risk management and good organizational development theories to bypass "best practices" and move directly to "next practices".

"I love getting results by changing systems, and taking the best ideas of all industries and taking them to the next level. When I see an organization succeeding, I am proud to be a part of it. I really believe we can change the way America works, and make a real difference both in the lives of the employees and the profits of the organization."
