Minneapolis Insurance Agent Alycia Riedl Named Vice President of NAHU

AUSTIN, Texas (July 1) - Alycia Riedl, a Minneapolis-based insurance agent, was named vice president of the National Association of Health Underwriters Board of Trustees at the organization's 92nd Annual Convention this week.

"Alycia Riedl brings a wealth of professionalism and expertise to our board," said Janet Trautwein, CEO of NAHU. "I'm ecstatic to begin working with her in this new role to advance NAHU's goals."

Riedl is currently a principal and client relationship manager in Mercer's Minneapolis office. Previously, she was a senior consultant in the Health and Group Benefits Practice at Willis Towers Watson.

Riedl has over 20 years of experience in human resources and benefits consulting. She's been a member of NAHU since 2007. She served as president of the Minnesota Association of Health Underwriters from 2013 to 2014 and chair of the board from 2014 to 2015. She has also served as NAHU Region 4 vice president.

Riedl graduated from the University of Minnesota-Twin Cities with a degree in psychology and received her Master of Business Administration from Saint Mary's University of Minnesota in 2007. She lives in Minneapolis with her family.

"I could not be more excited to start my service as NAHU's next vice president, working alongside so many talented and seasoned health professionals," Riedl said. "I'm confident we'll be able to continue building on NAHU's successes by delivering quality service to our members and clients alike."
