N.C. Insurance Executive David C. Smith Named Secretary of NAHU

AUSTIN, Texas (July 1) – David C. Smith, a Durham, N.C.-based consulting executive, was elected secretary of the National Association of Health Underwriters (NAHU) Board of Trustees at the organization's 92nd Annual Convention this week.

"I'm thrilled that David is joining our board as secretary," said Janet Trautwein, CEO of NAHU. "David has invested heavily in improving NAHU's ability to deliver the best services to our members, and I'm confident he'll continue to do so in this role."

Smith is senior vice president of eBen, a regional benefits consulting firm and agency. Together with his team of over 100 professionals and associates, Smith works with clients to raise their expectations and build long-lasting partnerships.

Smith has been an active member of NAHU for 20 years, serving in leadership positions at the local, state, and national levels. A North Carolina native, he holds a bachelor's in Political Science from the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, and a law degree from North Carolina Central University School of Law.

"It is an honor to be chosen as the next secretary for the NAHU Board of Trustees," Smith said. "Working alongside some of the most talented and knowledgeable experts in the health benefits industry is a fantastic opportunity, and I'm eager to give back to the NAHU community in this new position."
